

“Give Soon” Options

- Your appreciated stocks, mutual funds and other investments
- Gift directly from your IRA – Request information on the tax-friendly but under-utilized benefit of a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) that counts toward your annual RMD.
- Your real estate such as a home, vacation home, condominium, farm, ranch, etc. that could be gifted or sold
- Appreciated tangible items of your personal property that could be gifted or sold
- Coin collections, Estate Jewelry, Antiques
- Resurrection added for current distributions from Donor-Advised Funds
- Employer match - some employers match employees charitable contributions.
- Cash, check, credit card gifts
- One-time or periodic donations within 3 years
- Some gifting opportunities have rules in order to receive the maximum benefits. Best talk with Resurrection’s Donations Help Team and your advisors as you plan your gifts.
- Create your critical Philanthropic Legacy for future generations while providing estate relief for you and family.

“Give Later” Options

- Add Resurrection as a beneficiary to your will and/or trust with a dollar amount or %, gifting a specific asset, or naming Resurrection as residual beneficiary or as contingent beneficiary.
- Add Resurrection as a beneficiary to your retirement accounts with a dollar amount or % and/or as a contingent beneficiary
- Add Resurrection as a beneficiary on your bank accounts and CDs
- Add Resurrection as a beneficiary to an existing life insurance policy with a dollar amount or % or as a contingent beneficiary.
- Add Resurrection to an unneeded existing life insurance policy as owner and beneficiary. Tax benefits could be available as well.
- Purchase new life insurance policy making Resurrection owner and beneficiary. This increases your gift and has some other tax benefits.
- Pledge beyond 3 years
